

Christian Erwin

I oppose any and all data centers being built in New Mexico, we are in a desert and currently experiencing a drought, a data center would be disastrous for our community.