

Regina Nelson

I am adamantly against dat centers anywhere near people and especially here in the southwest where we already struggle for our water. Build them on the north slope where nobody lives and you won't need the water to cool them.

Regina Nelson