

Alex Viveros

i do NOT believe a 165 billion dollar data center should be placed in new mexico no matter how much they try to limit the water usage the only benefit is for the billionaires and NOT for the community especially with our water shortage corporations shouldnt have a word in what our communities want and we made it clear we do NOT want a data center get that shit out of here