

Rachel Saunders

I vehemently oppose the construction of this data center in Dona Ana County. The environmental impacts on air, water, and soil quality alone are enough to stop this construction. But evidence from data centers in other states has shown they only extract resources without adding any tangible value, drive up water and electricity costs, and negatively impact the health and quality of life of local communities. Project Jupiter will devastate the Santa Teresa community. Do not approve the Air Quality permits.