

Luna Rodriguez

I vehemently oppose Project Jupiter as it is unconscionable to destroy local communities and our planet at large for a project that will add absolutely no value. It will not create long term jobs, but it will ruin precious and important nature, and it will burden every person on this planet by further fuelling the climate disasters we are already facing.