

Milton Flykt

This dosnt just effect the county, its effects the whole world, and not just humanity, but all of nature. Animals on the other side the globe will suffer the consequences if this data center is actually built. We dont need this data center, we never have and never will. There is no logical reason to build something this large. AI is a dying bubble, why invest so much into it just to destroy nature?