

Christine Brickley

I do not support this application for a construction permit for Yucca Growth Infrastructure. The pollutants that will be released into New Mexico's air from this project would be more than the greenhouse gas emissions of Albuquerque and Las Cruces combined. New Mexico has precious resources- we need to steward them properly for the sake of our children.