

Katherine siemers

This project is extremely dangerous to not only human kind and the animals but the whole earth itself. Plenty of river's are being dried out giving animals in that area no water nearby. We don't need a data center in fact we need to lower the amount of all these generative ai centers and data centers that use up a huge percentage of drinking water. We are slowly killing ourselves.