

Kai Garrigan

To whom it may concern... which should be every single person on this planet but specifically local people of NM including the state representatives, senator, governor, mayor, judges, and other public officials... stop this initiative now! Think of the local community and ecology before thinking about lining your own pockets. Give our future generations the chance to thrive and survive in these lands. We do not need a machine to make our future better we need preservation of resources.