

Anonymous Anonymous

I believe this project is a threat to our environment and community. It will cause pollution that will impact our health. We need a couple more months to review the air quality permit application. The application should be denied given Bloom Energy's history of regulatory issues. If the permit is not denied, a public hearing needs to be held.