

Coda Weaver

This project would absolutely decimate the limited amount of resources dire to the health of our New Mexico communities. This is not only a health issue. It is a human rights issue. Keep this data center out of New Mexico at all costs for our future and current generations. We face too many barriers as it is as a state, our lands are one of our only sacred protections we need and can uphold as life continues to become harder and harder to survive through.