

E G

This proposed data center is a horrible idea for new mexico. The amount of resources that it uses for development and to sustain it are way more than our state can sustain long term. I do not think that this should happen. Ever.