

Travis Allred

I live in Farmington and I believe that putting this data center here will ultimately lead to the destruction of our own state growing up here and living here my entire life I would want to show my kids the beauty of Utah.