

CAT ALEMAN

Nobody asked for project jupiter and it would cause more harm than good. Drinking water is already being labeled as a "threatened resource". A data center of this size will ensure that access to clean drinking water will become scarce. Water bills will increase and people will therefore lose access to safe water. This will be the grossest use of resources we will have used as a society. Stop Project Jupiter.