

Laura Young

Do not go through with project Jupiter. Rio grande is already dried up, what water is there left to use? No one even wants this, the only thing it's benefiting is shareholders, and we can see how the earth is doing after prioritizing them so much. You guys are heartless and do not care for people.