

Dolores Hendricks

It is apparent that proponents of Project Jupiter have and are submitting fraudulent positive statements and are illegally using the names of citizens without their permission. This alone should stop any ongoing construction until a full and unbiased investigation is conducted. This project has been rammed down the throats of Dona Ana residents without any real discourses or disclosures on how and what this project will be doing to our water resources and the impact on the community.