

Rebecca Murphy

New Mexico is a state that loves its land and people, and this corporation doesn't care about a single rock or a single New Mexican. Stop selling our children's future to projects that benefit no one.