

Lily Thompson

This is my home. The land the water the air belongs to its people. It's children. I do not want this project to continue here. We do not have the resources to sustain our peoples. Therefore we do NOT have the resources to sustain Jupiter and our people. People are worth more. Always. Please listen to the people of the community this will affect and destroy.