

Fatima leyva

Hi i'm really concerned about our state, our Rio Grand is completely dry and we are still considering a data center that will take thousands if not millions of gallons of water. That is beyond unacceptable. Our community deserves better New Mexico is already a struggling state