

Ian C

By building this data center you are choosing profit over people. Its construction completely disregards the safety and health of all New Mexico residents. Men, women, children, families, elderly, and wildlife, will all have their air polluted and their water dirtied by the construction of this data center. To the reader- Suppose it was your children, your mother, your father, who was impacted, would shaving a few years off of their life be ok then?