

Carina Melero

Hello,

I'm writing to say I strongly oppose a data center being built in New Mexico. We are already limited with water and with summers arriving sooner and lasting longer and temperatures rising, it is imperative that we focus on New Mexicans and their needs. There are communities already that don't have enough water resources. You will harm more New Mexicans if you let this pass.

Thank you.