

Anonymous Anonymous

We don't need to hurt our planet further with violent chemicals and waste space with a center large enough to cover half a town. AI is not so revolutionary to be worth taking away drinking water from a community or three. And if you can't see that, it's just your greed speaking. God Bless You and consider changing your actions!