

Rebecca Mar

As a resident of New Mexico, I am against using our limited resources to support a data center in New Mexico. We have limited water in this state and it should go to our people and our agriculture, not a data center. I am 100% against Yucca Growth Infrastructure.