

Uliana Permiakova

I am a 16 year old, who wants a future. I want me and my friends, and for all of the other teenagers like me, to finish school, graduate from Unix get to work or do whatever they want to, and have a future for their children too.