

Tim Keller

I strongly admonish the new construction of the Yucca Growth Infrastructure LLC–YGI Microgrid data center in New Mexico and urge all parties to halt development until there is clear, transparent public review of environmental impacts, energy sourcing, water use, and local community effects, with meaningful mitigation and enforceable commitments to protect the land and people of the state.