

Beatrice Weisfeld

Most of my family lives in New Mexico and I care so deeply for this state. With the know environment effects of data centers please do not allow it to happen in an area already struggling with drought. You would be saving so many communities by saying no to this proposal. Thank you.