

Lorna Green

This is only going to harm the wildlife and our land. It will destroy the land and its people for generations. I will never accept this project as being good for us and our communities. We live in a desert, what happens when the Rio grand dries up? Where will it steal water from then? Our communities, reservations or our wildlife? No. Keep New Mexico beautiful and clean.