

Casey Davis

I absolutely do not want Project Jupiter here. It does not make sense to have a data center in the desert. The drought risk is already so high and this would make it worse. I think New Mexico is such an amazing and special place and this has absolutely no place here.