

Crystal Unknown

Large corporation shouldn't have the power to build unnecessary structures that are degrading the lands of the communities that live there and shouldn't have the right to control the air above those communities for their own selfish gain.