

David Young

There are multiple instances of AI data centers being dangerous for the environment and residents in the areas where they are built. Do not allow the construction of this center to continue, we do not need it and it will harm us.