

Joe Remacle

I don't feel that Project Jupiter should move forward. The energy consumption of these data centers will negatively impact the residents of our region. I also feel that they are not being honest and forthcoming regarding the water consumption needed for the long term of a facility like this.