

Aeron McKinnon

Im worried for the long term effects that this company will have on the environment it plans on building on. There is also the fact that this company has changed its name to change face to get away with other damages it has caused as well. We cant drink or eat data.. you cant breathe it either. We need to rebuild our climate more than build over it harmfully.