

Robin Brown

This project is wasteful, unnecessary, and will provide few jobs and benefits to the people of our state while increasing pollution and heat. The river is currently dry and we have no water to waste on such frivolous and toxic expenditures. No to this high stakes gamble of a project that stands to benefit very few.