

Jolie Daharsh

We do not need data centers in NM, the green house gas emissions and drought this would cause would be detrimental considering we are already in drought! Albuquerque, Santa Fe and Las Cruces already cause enough pollution on a daily basis, New Mexicans do not endorse AI data center to use the precious resources that should go to families as opposed to big corporations who would only use it for their own gain!