

Alix Herrera

As someone who grew up in Dona Ana County, we do not need a data center in New Mexico, and especially in southern New Mexico. This is a desert. And no amount of mitigation that Project Jupiter is touting will ever protect our precious resource. I am vehemently against this project, this permit application, and data centers in New Mexico.