

Jayden Luna

This data center will be really bad for the environment and will eventually take the drinking water of the residents of dona ana