

Grace Carmona-Yong

Please do not build this data center. We are already in a historic drought and we cannot afford to waste this much more water. It would also harm the community around the center. You say it would create jobs but at what cost?