

Heather Cowan

I grew up in las cruces and still visit family and friends there often. Please deny any and all permits for this project and for any future data centers, AI projects/companies, large scale servers - any construction where the water use will go to machinery instead of people and food. No more pollution! Save our water.