

Dave anonymous

I support approval of the YGI Microgrid Air Quality Construction (Jupiter Project air permit), provided it meets all applicable state and federal air quality standards. The project has the potential to bring economic growth and jobs to the Las Cruces area while remaining subject to ongoing monitoring and compliance requirements that protect public health and the environment.