

Caspian Myers

Stop the building of data centres and excessive mining operations. We are killing our planet, using our food and water reserves to feed a machine, and not the people who need it. I want my kids and my kids kids to grow in a world with biodiversity not to survive in a barren hellscape caused by feeding all our natural resources into a computer that benefits a few rich individuals.