

Betty Wyndorf

As a near lifelong resident of NM, I feel that we mustn't even entertain the possibility of more resource sucking infrastructure in our state. A new data center is completely unnecessary. Companies like Open AI do not care for our citizens or our land. They will deplete what little we have for maximum profit, and quite literally hang us out to dry. Deny this application and send them off. We don't want them.