

Samantha Stowers

I oppose this air quality construction permit application. The proposed project is not considering the well-being and interests of the local community. A data center will have a negative impact on the local environment and will not offer any long-term economic benefits to the members of the community. I urge the NM Environment Department to deny this application.