

Milam Smith

Project Jupiter will use resources subsidized by the community without returning anything to said community. The amount of jobs provided will be minimal, but the the energy and water usage will be excessive. I strongly disagree that this gross misallocation of resources be allowed.