

Yvanna Anonymous

We only have one planet, dont destroy it. You can make a change for the better! Rich people aka the billionaires can help fund à safer way to get supplies and resources from already explored places. Our planet is warming up as we speak and this project won't make it any cooler. There is nothing that is needed right now that is more important than the lives and safety of us and the future generations. Do better!