

Katalina Hadfield

I have asthma. One of the reasons I live in this region is because the air is clear enough for me to breathe well. Approving these permits would DRASTICALLY increase emissions and DRASTICALLY affect my asthma. I was born and raised here, and after living elsewhere for 10 years, I finally decided to come back. I don't want to have to leave again and leave my community behind :(