

susan Schmall

As a New Mexico resident I oppose Project Jupiter. It will suck resources from our state and then leave us hanging. They have used slimy tactics to rally support and that alone should tell the commissioners who these people are. It might have some short term jobs, but in the long run very few and will cause environmental interference to local communities and leave our beautiful state scarred for life. Please do not let this project happen.