

Camille Carvallo

I'm not from the state of New Mexico but we don't need a massive AI data center destroying New Mexico unique desert ecosystem, also the way of life of the people who live there. And not just for the people who live there now but future generations!