

Anonymous Anonymous

We cannot drink data. We cannot eat data. There will be future hearing problems, sleeping problems and many more if this data center is built...think about the people have a heart.

We can't drink data, we can't eat data, there will be future sleeping help issues and hearing problems. This is pollution to the air. What is the point for this think about the people think about the children,