

Charles Adney

We should not approve this permit. The proposed Project Jupiter data center will be a complete environmental disaster. The people that put these things up are not concerned about any ordinary American citizen, let alone someone in southern New Mexico. They will consume what little water is left and destroy the environment in and around the data center for years or decades. New Mexicans will be left to foot the bill to clean everything up after the AI crash happens.