

Melissa Thomas

I do not wish to see this take place. I do not wish to see the overuse of water and the pollution of air. I do not wish to see large data centers or clearings of land, where eventually there will be continuous water issues and energy hum. Other states are being told one thing and seeing something very different. We need more transparency and this should not move forward.